Harem Gown to Be Worn at Opera House Tonight.

Eddie Adair and Eddythe Henney, who are to appear at the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, in their newest offering, "Classical Tomfoolery," have been known to the vaudeville public for the past five years as two of the best dressers in this particular line of theatricals.

Miss Henney just received from Paris (not Kentucky) a handsome Harem gown. This importation at the cost of $400, has set the women of many cities to thinking seriously of wearing this new style of gown. Last week in Lexington it created a sensation and the Hippodrome was packed at every performance, it being safe to say that not a lady in Lexington missed the opportunity of seeing with her own eyes what has been the talk of this country and Europe, for the past year.

Miss Henney will wear the Harem gown at each performance tomorrow and Thursday nights. Eddie Adair will be remembered by the "musical set" as being the composer of some of the best selling song successes of the day. He will sing his famous hit, "When the Right Girl Comes Along." Miss Henney is conceded to be one of the most beautiful women on the stage, as well as a performer of ability.

Mr. Chas. Hecklow, the eccentric comedian, warranted to make you laugh and two fine independent pictures will complete what will be about the best bill of the season.

Health Board Means Business.

The Health Board is not running a jesting plant. True its members often indulge in light, refreshing pastimes. That's when we are out for a good time. Not so now. They are strictly out for a "hot time in the old town," and are not going to relax an effort until they know the old town will be a clean town some day. Get up steam then and come on. Better look at your running gear and see how you are fixed. We are expecting anything—good, bad, indifferent—and might be incited to fight the Devil with his own weapons. Awake! Turn on the light, can't you see what's coming. This is intended for you not the other fellow. If your neighbor is wrong be his friend and show him his errors, be sure however, you have the right to approach him.

The scriptural idea of the beam and the mote is not inapt here.

These little phrases are not written to hurt, their only aim is to interest and impress. You will heed them will you not? If you don't and a little reminder comes your way preserve your balance. Otherwise you will aggravate your troubles and not lessen ours.

True you feel aggrieved (a few only) but in the parlance of the street you will come across all right won't you? We think so, and it is best for you and for the public.

Time will mellow your wounded feelings and bring you to a full realization of your duties and obligations as good citizens and you will be just as ready and willing as are all far-minded men and women to join the chorus, "down with the hammer brigade," else you are tough sure.

The super-critical may not admire grammar, diction, etc., but that's immaterial to the ### Base Ball Notes.

The Chicago Record-Herald in a recent issue has the following to say of Al Kaiser, a former member of the Paris club, now playing in the outfield for the Cubs.

"Kaiser made two swell catches in the outfield, and Artie Hoffman had better look out for himself. In the first inning he robbed Rube Ellis of a triple by scooting back to left center and pulling down a long drive. In the ninth he took another triple away from the same man, this time going to right center and making a sparkling catch."

"Adie" Thoss, the mainstay of the Pioneers last season, has been sold by Connie Lewis to the Lexington club.

Winchester has signed for the season of 1911 Roy Golden. The new Golden is a first baseman and played with the Union College of Barbourville, which participated in two exhibition games here last week.

Richmond fans are very much enthused over the outlook for a fast club this season. The full squad is expected to be there by today, when real practice work will begin.

In the second game with Union College, of Barbourville Paris won by a score of 7 to 6. The visitors showed an improvement over the game of Thursday.

Wednesday afternoon the Paris Club will meet Georgetown on the local lot and the team from State University, Lexington, will be here Saturday. Sunday the Paris team will go to Cincinnati where they will play the Wiedemanns.

In a six inning contest Saturday Transylvania University was defeated by the Paris club by a score of 3 to 2. The Transylvania club was booked for another game in this city on Monday, May 1.
